Christ be the center of our lives bible verse

As Christians, the story and teachings of Jesus Christ are central to our faith and, indeed our lives and ultimate destinies. But it's all too easy to get distracted by the slings and arrows of daily life, and to lose our focus on god's gift to us — the sacrifice of his one and only son to offer us a path to eternal salvation. The good news here is that it's easy to find help in finding our center again, and staying there. After all, the entire Bible is devoted to laying the ground work for the Messiah's coming, and the New Testament is devoted entirely to Jesus and his teachings. Here are just 28 of among the many hundreds of Bible verses that can help you focus on Jesus. Colossians 3:15 Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Hebrews 12:2 Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. John 13:20 Very truly I tell you, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me. Ephesians 5:2 And walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. 2 Timothy 2:1 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. Luke 22:19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." John 13:13 You call me "Teacher" and "Lord," and rightly so, for that is what I am. Matthew 4:19 "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will send you out to fish for people." John 14:7 If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him. John 1:33 And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." Matthew 20:28 Just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. Acts 1:10-11 They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." 2 Corinthians 1:5 For just as we share abundantly in the sufferings of Christ, so also our comfort abounds through Christ. 1 John 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also. 1 John 2:24 As for you, see that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. Mark 8:34 Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." 1 John 5:20 We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true by being in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. Matthew 17:5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" Luke 3:21-22 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." Philippians 2:9-10 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth. 1 Corinthians 2:2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. Romans 5:15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many! Romans 5:6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. 1 Corinthians 1:9 God is faithful, who has called you into fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. John 10:9 I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture. Luke 9:48 Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest." John 17:24 "Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world." 1 Timothy 1:16 But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his immense patience as an example for those who would believe in him and receive eternal life. Finding the Bible verses you want in your hard copy Bible is one option for Bible study. But, the internet can be a great resource when you want to find a specific Bible verse too.Options for Studying Bible VersesThere are many variations for studying Bible verses. Sometimes you know the book of the Bible, but you're not sure about the chapter and verse. Other times you know the subject or a few keywords, but you have no idea which book you want.An online Bible concordance is the tool you need in these situations. A concordance is an index of keywords found in the bible, arranged in alphabetical order. So, if you want to look up Bible verses that contain the keyword "harp," you would enter harp in the search box of the concordance. You'll then see a list of all verses that contain this word. Peruse the list of verses and turn to them in your Bible.Online Bible Verse Look-UpOnline Bible verse look-up tools are helpful when you know the Bible verse and you want to read it. Navigate to a website with this tool. You'll see a field for entering the verse. For example, if you want to look up John 1:4, you would enter it into the field with the name of the book followed by the chapter and verse separated by a colon. Many verse look-up tools will also allow you to choose the Bible version you want to read, often with a drop-down menu of options. Choose your Bible version and click "look up passage." Review the verse.Using Verse-by-Verse CommentariesWhen your Bible study demands an in-depth review of verses, you might use an online verse-by-verse commentary. This Bible study tool enables you to choose the book, chapter and verse of the Bible. You'll then see the verse displayed with several commentaries following the verse, provided by various theologians. Peruse the commentaries to gain new insights and understandings of Biblical verses.Bible Verse Psalm 91If you want to look up a Bible verse in Psalm 91, enter this keyword phrase into an internet search engine. You'll receive a list of websites that show Psalm 91, complete with each of the 16 verses included in the chapter. Many websites will allow you to navigate between different Biblical versions so you can read the Psalm in different wordings. The general content of this Psalm is about trusting in God to protect you from harm.Finding Verses on Tithing and OfferingWhen you want to learn what the Bible says about tithing and offerings, you can find various websites that will shed light on these Biblical principles.Leviticus 27:30 describes tithing one-tenth of your income, and 1 Chronicles 29:14 covers the correct attitude about tithing. Haggai 1:4-6 discusses what happens if someone doesn't tithe, while 2 Corinthians 8:12 concerns giving offerings with a generous heart. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET By Hunter Greene If you were to make a list of your most important priorities, what would it look like? Because we are good Christians (right?), I imagine most of us would make our list look something like this: 1) God 2) Family 3) Work 4) Recreation. However, if we were to make a percentage chart of how much time we spend with each of these categories, it becomes something like this: 1) Work 2) Recreation 3) Family 4) God. It is no secret that a lot of us, myself included, spend a majority of our time making money, watching TV, and taking naps while the remaining hour or two a week (if that) we have left is given to God, usually in the form of some church service. We tend to make a hierarchy of priorities in our lives based on which is the most important. Yet, our realities present evidence contrary to what most of us believe about what is important to us. I have always heard that we make time for the things that matter to us. While there may be some truth to this, I don't find it to be the most helpful or practical advice. Let's be honest. Most of us say we value God's Word, but we actually spend very little time reading it, and if we do, it is usually through the lens of some devotional book. Most of us say we find prayer to be essential to our lives, but we actually only pray over our food in hopes of it not getting stuck on the way down. Most of us say we believe in the transforming love of Christ, but we aren't all that willing to stop on the side of the road as the Good Samaritan did. When we organize our lives based off this hierarchy and fail to live up to the standards we or others set for us, we end up feeling like failures with the burdens of guilt and shame placed on our shoulders. I want to suggest to you that Jesus isn't interested in being the top of your priority list (I know it sounds a bit heretical but keep reading). He isn't worried about competing with the thousands of obligations and responsibilities we commit to. Jesus doesn't want to be the top of your list. Rather, He wants to be the center of your life. Colossians 1:15-20, "Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature; For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell; And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven." God has created the world with Christ being at the center of His will. Even when the sin entered the world and destroyed the relationship we had with God, God has still chosen to reconcile the world to Himself through Jesus Christ. The world revolves around the Son of God, and we must realize that any position we give Christ other than the center of our very existence is not worthy of Him. So why does this distinction matter? Because when we make hierarchies and lists in our lives, we fall prey to the assumption that we are growing in the Lord because we can check a box at the end of the day. Read my Bible for 15 minutes? Check. Pray for 10 minutes? Check. Tell one person about Jesus? Check. Ultimately, our relationship with Christ is reduced to a religious form of legalism in which we justify our lifestyles as long as we check God's box at some point during the day. Christ doesn't want to be checked off some list, not even if He is at the top. No, Jesus wants to be the very reason that you do everything you do. He wants to be the center of your life. Because when Christ is at the center rather than the top, it transforms our entire perspective on life. I can make Jesus a "priority" and still completely miss the rich depths of a relationship with Him. When Jesus is at the center, I can't get Him off my mind or out of my heart. He becomes my focus at church, at home, at work, and even at the mall or football game. Jesus being at the center of the universe as well as our lives means that He becomes the dominant force which gives our lives direction and purpose. Every thought and movement becomes about Him. I encourage you to stop making your faith about rituals rooted in some religious guilt trip. Jesus doesn't want to be contained to some ritualistic cage. He would rather walk with us and talk with us in the richness of a relational faith.
